FISTBALL ACADEMY – Task Force

Terms of Reference for members of the Task Force LEARNING and PEDAGOGICS

1. The Fistball Academy ("Academy") is a platform to promote knowledge exchange, learning, and the flow of information and communication in the international fistball family.
2. As defined in the Academy Governance Framework, the Academy comprises two bodies: Academy Committee and Academy Task Force.
3. These Terms of Reference discuss the generic and specific role of members of the Academy Task Force: Learning and Pedagogics (unsalaried).
4. The role of the members of the Task Force Learning and Pedagogics includes, but is not limited to the following:
   a. Support and implementation of matters related to learning, education and pedagogy, including in terms of planning, didactic, pedagogical structure and organization of learning material;
   b. Identification of relevant learning material (courses and resources) within the field of learning, education and pedagogy, and corresponding briefing of the Academy Task Force;
   c. Development and review of new learning content, courses and resources, for the Academy, including quality control;
   d. Participate in formal Academy Task Force meetings/conference calls (i.e. four times per calendar year), and in informal meetings/conference calls, bilaterally with other Academy Task Force members;
   e. Continuous exchange of knowledge and experience with the Academy Committee Learning/Pedagogical Adviser.
5. Expected time commitment:
   a. As the full scope of the Academy still needs to be defined/determined, it is difficult to quantify the expected time commitment at this time;
   b. Having said that, the members of the of the Task Force Learning and Pedagogics would ideally dedicate as much time as they could comfortably afford to give to the Fistball Academy and the broader fistball community.
