- More than three projects can be entered, but a maximum bonus of 3x € 100.00 will be granted for successfully implemented projects.
- The development projects must be initiated and implemented by the National Federation. A local project officer must be defined who is the contact person vis-à-vis the IFA in the development projects.
- Projects must contain measurable objectives. (qualitative/quantitative) After 6 months, an interim report per submitted project is prepared for the attention of the IFA.
- After 12 months (end of the calendar year), a final report must be prepared for each development project (activities, objective, degree of achievement, lessons learned).
- Projects can run for several years, but milestones must be defined and an interim report must be prepared every 6 months.
